How are you after the Teacher's Summit at Pepperdine University? From that event, we have learned that Social Emotional Learning (SEL) was included in two (2) of the many Edcamp mini-sessions. We understand how crucial SEL in establishing relationships to our students and create academic success all throughout the year. One tool to make this happen based from experience is coaching. On that note, we want to Welcome you to the Heart-based Coaching® for Teachers!

SEL Class: Teacher's Wheel

Date: Saturday, August 12, 2017

Time: 9:30 am – 11:30 am (Please come 10 minutes earlier to connect with fellow Educators. We will start exactly at 9:30 am.)

Venue: Veterans Park, Uruapan room, 4117 Overland Ave., Culver City, CA 90230 USA

Dress: Casual (You will be moving around much of the time.)

This free SEL HBC Class will give you an idea on how to incorporate Heart-based coaching (HBC) skills in your classroom teaching. You will learn:

- ♥ an introduction to HBC Model
- ♥ to listen effectively to your students
- ♥ to experience HBC skills as a teacher/coach

Some Testimonials:

“This is a model that will help students and teachers start a good school year.” Maria Elena Garcia, 6th Grade Teacher in Pomona, CA

“Heart-Based Coaching (HBC) is a powerful program for the teaching profession, as it provides a framework for empowering transformational shifts and inspiring action in those we teach. The training I attended provided an opportunity for me to witness the power of the ALIMA model! Yas Hardaway, Executive Director of Career Services & Adjunct Faculty, Pepperdine University, Graduate School of Education & Psychology

Your Trainers:

Alan Hubbard has completed his Co-active Coaching courses and is currently waiting to start his certification program from the Coaches Training Institute (CTI). He worked as a Public School Teacher for more than 20 years. He taught Geometry at the adult school level. He loved Math because there was never just one way to solve a problem. This enabled his students to come to the answer using the best way to solve problems for them. He has worked with Developmentally Disabled Adults using Drama, Art, and Music Expression. He currently enjoys performing a stand-up comedy in Los Angeles area.

Carlyne Kohner is a Certified Professional Co-active Coach (CPCC) from the Coaches Training Institute (CTI) and a Certified True Colors (TC- Myers-Briggs in colors) Trainer. She was born and raised in the Philippines. She has a Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Education and she has taught at Educational Institutions in Visayas and Metro Manila, Philippines. She also taught in Los Angeles, California. She is the heart of the LCT company. Carlyne has trained leaders and teachers using her Heart-based Coaching (HBC) program. She enjoys dancing hula and loves gardening.

Now that you know us, we look forward to creating a fun, easy, and hands-on class with you. Our hope is that you can apply this SEL HBC tool when you start your class next week.

We know that you are busy preparing the opening of your class for the School Year 2017-2018 and in spite that, you are committed to give us your time this coming Saturday morning. Please know that we truly appreciate your presence. Our mission is to create outstanding results and value for you.

Your Heart-based Facilitators,

Carlyne Kohner & Alan Hubbard
